ABOUT

Matthew J. Farrell is the originator and co-founder of CORE Partners, LLC and current serves as an Executive Principal / Partner for the group. In addition, to his transactional services, Matt is a member of COREs Executive Management Team and responsible for the day-to-day operations of the company, brokerage staff and oversight of 6.2 million square feet of commercial product. Prior to becoming an Executive Principal/Partner with CORE, Matt was a Vice President with Friedman Real Estate Group, Inc. which he joined in 2002, and quickly distinguished himself as a leading professional in Southeastern Michigan representing nearly 4.2 million square feet owned by the largest list of institutional owners Michigan had to offer. Matt also served a term with Grubb & Ellis for nearly three years prior and serviced many local and national users. Matts credibility is confirmed by seven consecutive years as the top producer in Southeastern Michigans office market by outperforming the competition nearly three to one for total transactions completed and total square footage transacted.- Matt takes pride in an incredible work ethic and the skill to use todays most advanced tools to facilitate real estate business. It is not unlike Matt to diligently work through CAD file alterations, creatively find a solution to budgetary constraints and go beyond the call of duty to service clients towards a common goal.- In addition to being a strong Leasing specialist Matt has been continually recognized for his Investment representation and credited by CoStar as a POWER BROKER in both categories for 2004 through present. In addition, Matt has been selected as 2009 Broker of the Year by the Commercial Board of RealtorsMichigan and made the list of Crains Detroit 2009 Top 40 Under 40. Matt will...
