ABOUT

“Building strong lifelong relationships with my clients allows me to proactively meet their needs and find them opportunities they may have otherwise missed. By joining the experienced team at Swisher Commercial, I know that I can give my clients the best service possible.” Scott grew up in Ann Arbor before attending Michigan State University earning a B.A. Shortly after graduating, Scott attended Michigan State University College of Law receiving his J.D. cum laude. While in law school, Scott found his passion for everything real estate, even working for a title company while in school. After graduation, Scott became counsel for the largest title agency in Michigan focusing on underwriting and closing large commercial transactions and loans. After working in the title industry, Scott took a position with a law firm where he negotiated sales, leases, and underlying documents for some of the largest retailers in the US, commercial and residential developers, and individual investors. This experience gives Scott the ability to spot and deal with issues that might otherwise prevent closing. During the economic downturn, Scott pursued his other passion, sports, and opened a sporting goods store in Ann Arbor that catered to local athletes and teams, with training facilities and high-end equipment. It also allowed Scott to get into coaching with his children. Scott is married to his wife Kendra, and they have two children, Stephanie, and Kyle. Outside of work Scott enjoys playing golf, family activities and watching his kids play hockey and softball.
