Ellen S. Mahoney

ABOUT

Ellen Mahoney is a distinguished leader in the Metro-Detroit real estate industry. As the owner of RE/MAX Commercial Connection and RE/MAX Connection Detroit, she has built a reputation for excellence in both commercial and residential real estate. Ellen's career began as a commercial real estate paralegal at prominent Detroit law firms, where she gained invaluable experience working with major developers and overseeing significant real estate transactions. Her entrepreneurial spirit led her to establish a residential mortgage brokerage and later preside over a Birmingham title company, where she successfully expanded their commercial division. In 2016, Ellen made a significant mark by opening the first exclusive commercial brokerage for RE/MAX in Southeastern Michigan, specializing in sales, acquisition, development, and leasing of commercial properties. Ellen's commitment to integrity and community service is reflected in her numerous leadership roles, including positions with Commercial Real Estate Women of Detroit, the Advisory Board for Life Remodeled, and the Birmingham Bloomfield Chamber of Commerce.

RE/MAX Commercial Connection ("RCC") is an exclusive commercial brokerage and we are focused only on the sale, acquisition, development, and leasing of commercial properties and businesses. Our success is supported by a diverse and sophisticated knowledge of the commercial real estate markets. We have the capacity to represent our clients as specialists in the areas of sale and development of raw land; existing buildings; sale and purchase of particular commercial real estate assets; retail and office leasing; and property management.
