Ryan D. Brittain

ABOUT

Ryan D. Brittain provides commercial real estate solutions to clients throughout Southeast Michigan, while specializing in the sale and leasing of industrial real estate in the Metro Detroit area. In this role, he combines responsiveness, in-depth market knowledge, and a commitment to the unique business requirements and strategies of his clients.

He specifically leverages his extensive industry experience acquired by working for a publicly traded REIT (First Industrial Realty Trust, NYSE - FR), and prominent local developer (Cunningham-Limp) to guarantee an optimal outcome for clients.

Ryan has negotiated and brokered a multitude of transactions, including the sale and leasing of manufacturing, distribution, technology, and office facilities, sale/leaseback transactions, build-to-suit projects, and land assemblage. He is skilled in transaction negotiation, site selection, and the financial analysis required for clients to make educated real estate decisions.
