Greg Hudas

ABOUT

With a history of both personal and professional accomplishments, Greg has proven himself as a natural leader driven toward excellence. He applies a stringent work ethic to every task, always striving to correctly identify client needs and exceed their expectations.

Greg specializes in representing clients in the sale, lease and development of commercial/industrial real estate on the west side of the Detroit market. Greg began his real estate career 27 years ago with Signature Associates, and since then has been a regular in Signature's World Class Club as well as Co-Star's Top Industrial Brokers in Michigan. Two of the last 4 years Greg has secured the largest industrial lease in southeast Michigan and in 2010 was the Top Industrial Broker at Signature.

Prior to joining Signature Associates, Greg was a franchise owner of Little Caesar's Pizza, operating stores in Washington D.C.

During this time, he won the Little Caesar's Expect to Win Award, a title given nationally to an owner who best exemplifies a winning attitude and operational excellence. This ownership experience gave Greg great knowledge into the many issues impacting businesses, making him more attuned to his client's unique needs. Before becoming a franchise owner, Greg played two seasons of professional hockey in the Detroit Red Wings Organization.
